DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

Claims 1-44 are pending in the present application.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed October 9, 2001 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. As addressed below, Fandrianto et al. anticipated the claims. Fandrianto teaches a system bridge controller for coupling a CPU to a plurality of peripheral devices when he discloses the pc processor connecting to an audio, video, and a camera (fig. 1 and 3-4; col. 3, lines 50-61; col. 5, lines 33-56). Fandrianto teaches the RISC processor is a microprocessor (col. 5, lines 33-56). A microprocessor is a CPU. Therefore, the RISC processor connects to a plurality of peripheral devices such as an audio, video, and a camera (fig. 1 and 3). Thus, Fandrianto teaches a bridge controller because he teaches the connections of a CPU to a plurality of peripheral devices.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

1. The text of those sections of Title 35, U.S. Code not included in this action can be found in a prior Office action.
2. This maintains the rejection of the prior action which is hereby incorporated by reference.
3. Claims 1-44 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Fandrianto et al. (US patent no. 5,982,459).

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
